CONSTANCE COLLIER AT ROYAL THEATRE

"The Code of Marcia Gray" Is Vehicle for Famous English Actress' Ability.

"The Code of Marcia Gray" which appears at the Royal today and tomorrow, the latest Maroono play released on the Paramount program explains a rather unusual code of conduct for these non-critical times.

Deserted by call her fashionable friends when her husband was indicted for the wrecking of the trust company, Marcia had only the support and council of her lawyer-friend Castle. Castle had remained single because of Marcia.

Their necessary intimacy during the fight for her husband's liberty was distorted by Gray's prison-stained mind. Her reward for unswerving faithfulness and constant and sometimes humiliating work for his release was rewarded by a snarling accusation.

The scene of the accusation with its intensely dramatic action rendered by the star, Constance Collier, supported by Forrest Stanley and Henry De Vere form a strong link in this excellent story of modern fashionable life and frenzied finance.

LYRIC SECURES GOOD SERIAL PICTURE STORY

"Blue and Whites" Take the Measure of "All Stars" at Warren Sunday

The Lyric Theatre has secured the rights of "The Secret of the Submarine" and will show the first chapter of this wonderful serial today. Tuesdays and Fridays will hereafter be serial days at the Lyric. "Paw of the Ring" being shown on the latter day. The story of the first chapter of "The Secret of the Submarine" is as follows:

Dr. Ralph Burke, a scientist, perfects an apparatus enabling submarine craft to remain under water indefinitely. The discovery is offered to the United States government and Lieut. Jarvis Hope, U. S. N., is detailed to investigate it. A rich lobbyist closely identified with influential men at Washington sends his nephew, Gerald Morison, to purchase the secret. Olga Ivanoff, setting for the Russian government; Mahlin, an international character, and Sateuma, his lieutenant, also lay plans to obtain the secret. Lieutenant Hope requests a demonstration. (Clio Burke, the inventor's daughter, begs her father to take her on the trial trip, which is set for the next day. Hook Baracle, an old sea acquaintance of Lieut. Hope, becoming suspicious, informs the spies of the proposed trip. Sateuma conceals himself aboard the submarine. While Dr. Burke is being congratulated upon his success, Sateuma sneaks from his hiding place to excise the mechanism. He is discovered and a general fight follows.
